Summer 2012

Announcing

Two Free Drop off Events for Televisions and Computer Monitors

Take advantage of two free annual drop off events for televisions and computer monitors to be held at Blue Line Transfer, Inc. on the second and third Thursday in September from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm. There will be no charge for televisions, computer monitors and lap tops. Regular rates will apply for other electronics such as hard drives, printers, photo copiers and all other e-waste.

Where:

Blue Line Transfer, Inc.

500 East Jamie Court, off East Grand/Haskins Way, South San Francisco

When:

Thursday, September 13 from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm

Thursday, September 20 from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm

A Note of Caution:

Be wary of offers for free curb side collection of your electronics from unnamed sources. These dealers may not be reputable and there is no guarantee that your data or personal information which they may ask you to provide will be handled safely.

Our Focus on Sustainability

In 2011 we produced our first Sustainability Report with the intention of documenting our historical achievements, and our progress towards achieving our sustainability goals for the future. With the understanding that sustainability is a progression, we set eleven goals that we will work towards over the next ten years.

The goals encompass our commitment to:

- Reduce the impact of our operations on the environment
- Support the local economy and the communities we serve
- Provide a safe work place and a positive work experience for our employees

Our goals and the targets to reach them will be routinely revised in order to ensure that we are doing everything we can to support them. You may follow our progress on our web site at www.ssfscavenger.com in the Sustainability section.

Cart Storage Reminder

Your city requires that carts for garbage, recycling and yard waste be stored out of view from the street. Carts should be rolled out no more than 12 hours before collection and stored out of site no more than 12 hours after collection.
