

Sustainable Living – The Real Thing

Stretch your imagination! Learn how to create a well-designed, functional living space on a miniscule budget. Recycle, reuse, repurpose, and craft everything – all in a sustainable fashion.

Dates: Saturday 9/23-9/30/17

Time: 9:00am-1pm

Location: College of San Mateo, Building 14, Room 205

Tuition: $85.00

Carol Tanzi, ASID, CID, also known as the Goddess of Garbage, is a high energy award-winning interior designer whose very life and work epitomizes her mission statement:

“To educate, inform, and show the world a new way to approach sustainable living by recycling using upcycling and reuse as a design style for interiors.”

Carol has received national recognition for her work and has appeared on numerous television and radio shows. Additionally, she has been featured in many prestigious publications.

For More Information and Registration:
CommunityEd.smccd.edu or
Call (650) 574-6149

*Not for Credit Class